

SECRET

DRAFT

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

THROUGH : Deputy Director (Support)

SUBJECT : Mid-Career Training Program

REFERENCE : [] 29 March 1963, Mid-Career Training Program

1. Referenced Notice, paragraph 6c, limits participation in the Mid-Career Training Course to approximately [] students a year. The two weeks block of instruction for which the Brookings Institution will be responsible likewise limits us this year to three courses of [] students each. Those limitations restrict participation in the Mid-Career Training Program to so small a number of students as to minimize the effectiveness and purpose of the Program. Note below the probable allocations of students by component in comparison with the total number of GS-13's and GS-14's presently on duty and physically available here for training:

| GS-13's | | GS-14's | |
|---------|--------|---------|--------|
| Total | Hqtrs. | Total | Hqtrs. |

DDI
DDP
DDS
DDR
Compt
IG
DCI }

Total

2. Your permission is requested to broaden the base of the Mid-Career Program to include alternate choices within the Program of other blocks of instruction in addition to those listed in 5a, b, and c of Reference.

1. Major World Factors of International Communism, Nationalism, and key area political and economic problems

SECRET

SECRET

2. Management
3. Overseas Effectiveness
4. DDP Seminars for DDP Personnel
5. DDI Seminars for DDI Personnel
6. DDS Seminars for DDS Personnel
7. External training courses on the general topics described in 5b and c of Reference
8. Other external or internal courses which are directly concerned with the career development of qualified employees.

3. We further propose to give credit for participation in the Mid-Career Training Program to those students who complete six weeks of the courses listed above provided that there be joint participation of all components of the Agency in two-thirds of the courses.

MATTHEW BAIRD
Director of Training

DRAFT

SECRET